

BULTUM ACADEMY

- Scenario 1: Distance learning only
- Scenario 2: Hybrid learning with strict social distancing and capacity limits
- Scenario 3: In-person learning for all students

Scenario I: Distance learning only

This model may be implemented if local, regional, or statewide COVID-19 metrics indicate this is the safest model for use.

- Elementary students will do daily check-ins with homeroom teachers and attend class meetings
- Elementary students will receive daily streamed and/or recorded lessons in math and language arts
- All students who qualify for additional services will receive support through Special Education, Speech & Language, English Language Development
- The front office will be open for families who will need to pick up learning materials for their child.

Scenario II: Hybrid learning

In this model, schools must limit the overall number of people in school facilities and on transportation vehicles to 50% maximum occupancy. This model will be implemented if Covid cases in the school exceed 25 individuals.

- Elementary students who are learning from home will do daily check-ins with homeroom teachers and attend class meetings.
- All staff and students in the building will wear masks or shields and safely distance
- Elementary students at home will receive daily streamed and/or recorded lessons in math and language arts.
- Grades 3-5 will sign into google classroom for resources and assignments
- All students who qualify for additional services will receive support through Special Education, Speech & Language, English Language Development.

Scenario III: In-person

In this model, BA will create as much space between students and teachers as is feasible during the day, but will not be strictly enforcing 6 feet of social distancing during primary instructional time in the classroom. Activities and extracurricular programming will continue to follow MDH guidelines

- All students and staff will be invited to return to in-person learning.
- Outdoor activities are encouraged.
- All staff and students in the building will wear masks or shields and will distance as much as possible.
- All students who qualify for additional services will receive support through Special Education, Speech & Language, English Language Development

